

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION CAFÉ SUSTAINABILITY & THE K-12 SYSTEM

How is education contributing to a more sustainable world? Come share your experiences with how the K-12 education system in Ontario is supporting the transition to a healthier planet!

Welcoming stakeholders engaged with the education system including municipal councilors and employees, chamber of commerce representatives, environmental networks, social justice organizations, Indigenous organizations, and others.

Tuesday, October 25, 2016

251 Bank Street (Blue and Green Room, 2nd Floor)

Ottawa, ON

6:30 pm-8:00 pm

Please RSVP to Jaylene Murray
jaylene.murray@usask.ca

The venue is accessible
Food and refreshments will be served

Everyone is welcome! Please share with anyone who might be interested in joining the discussion

About the Research

This community café is part of a national study examining sustainability uptake in policy and practice across the Canadian formal education system. Based at the University of Saskatchewan, the Sustainability and Education Policy Network (SEPN) is a research-based network. Our partners include the Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives, David Suzuki Foundation, Learning for a Sustainable Future, and Sierra Youth Coalition. For more information, visit www.sepn.ca.